HBSPCA is the place to be this March Break

HAMILTON, ON (January 30, 2017) – Where will your kids be this March Break? The Hamilton/Burlington SPCA (HBSPCA) offers children age 6-11 a 5 day camp to discover compassion and respect for companion animals and all living things.

Campers get hands-on with fun and animal themed activities. Knuckles, the blind therapy cat, and Serena the alpaca are clearing their pet visiting schedules. Leaders in their fields will share their stories of animal rescue, care and behaviour.

"March Break Critter Camp provides a window on the incredible companionship that animals bring to people of all ages", says Tania Celik-Sonne, Coordinator of Humane Education. "The program inspires curiosity, critical thinking and humane awareness among young animal lovers".

Registration is now open.

Camp session: Monday, March 13th – March 17th, 2017

8:30am – 4:30pm

Five day session: $200.00

Daily session: $40.00
